A ten foot the movement to launch a rent strike on May 1, and Socialist agitators are busying themselves night and day in efforts to gain more recruits. This movement began a week ago in the Brownsville section in Brooklyn, where it is said more than 15,000 rent payers have been whipped into line by the organizers. The first signs of what may be ex-pected in certain quarters when the scheme gets under way were observed yesterday in some of the municipal courts where landlords reported that tenants, dissatisfied with legal rulings and with the Mayor's committee, were resorting to sabotage in their endeavors to force their landlords to grant further reductions of rent.

One landlord instituted eviction pro ceedings against twenty-four families in a house on East 137th street, charging that they have turned the place into a bedlam. He declares that they cut away but the wheels had passed over the young woman.
